

Irrigation Efficiency Study in Belmar

The Magical Garden Co-op in Belmar is a community vegetable garden that utilizes a typical automatic irrigation system with a poor efficiency of 38%. By simply changing the sprinkler heads the increased efficiency increased to 91% (EPA WaterSense program considers 70% good). The simple, cost-effective fix increased efficiency by 42% at the site.