

Publicity Events

The key to any water conservation program is keeping visible. The New Jersey Water Savers team in cooperation with the Environmental Commissions of each town has had a presence at community events in all towns including hosting educational booths that promote water efficiency.