

Veronicastrum virginicum
Culver's Root

Summer Foliage

Summer Flower

Characteristics: Herbaceous perennial

Appearance:

Height – 3-6 ft.

Flower Color – White to pale blue

Flowering Period – May - August

Habitat (Community): Open woods, thickets and moist meadows and prairies

Hydrology:

Indicator status – Facultative Upland

Non-Tidal Regime – Medium to wet, well-drained soil

Wildlife Benefits: Attracts butterflies

Distribution: Vermont to Ontario and Manitoba, south to Georgia and Louisiana