Matt Cotton:

Matt Cotton is a 21 years old artist currently living in South Jersey. Born in New Jersey, living his childhood in Smithville he began his lifestyle in art. By age 10 Matt and his family moved to Virginia, which started a new chapter in his life. Matt started taking art classes and filling up sketch books with all types of drawings at home. No more then three years later Matt was living back in New Jersey. Moving back opened his eyes to different types of art and exploring the unique styles of art. Currently Matt has an Associates Degree in Art and Design from Burlington County College. He was also in the Burlington County College best of 2008 art book. Some of his main inspirations are Salvador Dali, Vincent Van Gogh, and Stephen Wiltshire. Matt’s preferred medium is acrylic paint in a somewhat of an abstract style.

Currently Matt is working at Wegman’s, and trying to further his art by becoming an art teacher in the near future.
