

http://www.raintorecreation.org/rain_barrels.html

Calling all Artists!

Here is a chance to display your artistic talents to the public. We are looking for New Jersey artists to beautify rain barrels. If interested please fill out an application from <http://www.water.rutgers.edu/>, and submit it to the address provided.

The beautified rain barrels will be auctioned and all profits will be given to the artist to encourage new creative endeavors!

<http://www.gatlinburg.com/rainbarrel/default.asp>

http://www.inmyownbackyard.org/How_To_Build_A_Rain_Barrel.php

<http://lakecountyil.gov/Stormwater/LakeCountyWatersheds/BMPs/RainBarrelSale.htm>

http://www.vacd.org/winooski/winooski_rainbarrels.shtml

http://www.inmyownbackyard.org/How_To_Build_A_Rain_Barrel.php

<http://www.roperld.com/science/rainbarrels.htm>

RUTGERS
New Jersey Agricultural Experiment Station

NEW JERSEY
WATER SAVERS

The One Barrel at a Time Co-op Program Schedule

- Application and a sample of your artwork are due on or before March 9, 2012.
- Pick up barrel and turn in biography by March 23.
- Return barrel back to Rutgers by April 16.
- Barrels will be displayed at Rutgers Day on April 28 and at Duke Farms on April 30.
- eBay® barrel bidding will close May 20.

